

NEW YORK CITY.

THE COURTS.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—IN BANKRUPTCY.

The Bankrupt Law—The Operation of the Fifty Per Cent Clause Suspended and the Act Revived.

One of the last of Congressional doings at the Saturday evening session was the application of a partial remedy to the operation of the Bankrupt law by an amendment extending the period for filing voluntary petitions to the first of January, 1900. The obnoxious fifty per cent clause during this extended term of the act proper, suspended, and once more the benefits of the act are sought by voluntary petitioners. Yesterday the business of the court was once more set on motion and the court was induced to take their pens from behind their ears on the presentation of the petition of James S. Fisk, filed by Mr. Edward M. Kane, of the firm of Kane & O'Sullivan, of No. 111 Broadway, who had filed a petition for the benefit of the act as a voluntary petitioner.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS.

Decisions.

Judge Cardozo rendered judgment in the following cases: Barth v. Barth.—Applications of this kind are not granted unless the plaintiff shows a meritorious cause of action. The motion is denied without prejudice.

Cassidy vs. Cuff et al.—Motion granted on payment of $10 costs, and an order for security.

Wicks vs. Tullman.—Motion denied, but injunction modified. The question of costs reserved.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—SPECIAL TERM.

Decision.

Judge Brady rendered judgment in the following cases: O'Kane vs. O'Sullivan.—Ball reduced to $100.

COURT CALENDAR—THIS DAY.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS.—Nos. 42, 43, 153, 192, 194.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.—The following is a record of the temperature for the past twenty-four hours, as indicated by the thermometer at Hudson's pharmacy, No. 215 Broadway, HERALD Building:—

3 A. M.	69	3 P. M.	82
6 A. M.	70	6 P. M.	78
9 A. M.	77	9 P. M.	78
12 M.	82	12 P. M.	76
Average temperature	75
Average for Tuesday	78

PERSONAL.—Chief Justice Chase arrived in this city yesterday and is at present occupying apartments at the Metropolitan Hotel. It is presumed that he will stay here will not last over two days at the most.

Suspension of a Banking House.—The failure of the firm of Abram Bell & Son, bankers and exchange brokers, which was announced two days ago, is reported to have been occasioned by heavy losses resulting from speculations in oil.

A DESERVED PROMOTION.—The Board of Police, yesterday, at its regular meeting, promoted Officer Mc. of the Twenty-third Precinct to the rank of sergeant, in recognition of his intrepid pursuit of the assassin of Officer Smidwick, which resulted so fortunately in that officer's arrest.

A FOOLISH GIRL.—Officer Green, of the Twenty-third Precinct, on Monday arrested a girl named Eliza Reese, who had been away from home on board the steamer Old Colony. She was taken to the Central office and will be returned to her proper guardians.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Charles Carney, aged thirty-three years, residing at 223 Monroe street, was seriously injured on Monday afternoon by a piece of timber falling on his head at the sawmill 223 Monroe street. He was attended by Dr. Walker and taken to Bellevue Hospital.

PROBABLE SUICIDE.—About half-past ten last night an unknown person dressed as a naval officer, while on the passage from Catherine street to Brooklyn, jumped or fell from the aft part of the boat into the river. A boat was promptly lowered and every effort made to rescue him, but to no purpose.

BENEFIT OF THE REMOTE OF THE LATE OFFICER CORLETT.—This evening a lecture will be delivered by Ingram Lockwood, at the Washington Heights Presbyterian church, for the benefit of the widow and children of the late police officer Henry Corlett, who was drowned from the steamer Seth Low at 152d street. The subject will be "Otto von Bismarck, a great Prussian statesman."

POLICE TRIALS.—The Board of Metropolitan Police held its regular session yesterday for the hearing of and examining into complaints, President Acton in the chair. The usual number of trials were held, the only interesting feature of which was one for the curious in regard to national insoberness—viz., that the majority of complaints in these cases are Germans.

DEATH OF AN OLD PUBLIC CLERK.—George Mortimer, who, during the last fifty-two years, has held the position of Chancery Clerk in the Register's office, died at his residence a few days since, having attained the age of seventy-four years. He entered the office when himself and the Register were the only persons on duty. The body was taken to the morgue and will be buried in the cemetery of the same name.

GENEROUS COAL SALES.—The Board of Metropolitan Police held its regular session yesterday for the hearing of and examining into complaints, President Acton in the chair. The usual number of trials were held, the only interesting feature of which was one for the curious in regard to national insoberness—viz., that the majority of complaints in these cases are Germans.

THE MOSQUITO INVASION.—Swarms of mosquitoes yesterday opened their saucer-shaped mouths at the faces of Gothamites. These fellows are evidently on a foraging expedition. Possibly a south wind has blown them up from the morasses and bays of the Carolinas and Louisiana, and they are now attacking in force, and swarming in the streets, shops and parlors. They are cowardly enemies; they give no warning to their victims and pounce upon them unannouncedly. The more energetic people attack them in vigorously, sink their artesian wells, and suck their fill until they become so bloated that they roll over on their backs. The more vigorously they bite the more energetically people scratch.

THE ALLEGED $100,000 SWINDLE.—The evidence in the criminal prosecution instituted by Brown, Brothers & Co., bankers, Wall street, against J. K. Place, late of the firm of J. K. Place & Co., importers and grocers, from which it is charged that the said Place obtained from Brown, Brothers & Co. a loan of $100,000 by false pretences, is all in, and the defence yesterday rested. The investigation has been going on at the Jefferson Market Police Court for several months, and has been the subject of the Herald from time to time. The high standing of all the parties to the action has given the case an interest in commercial circles, and it is probable that a decision will be rendered at an early day.

CASUALTIES YESTERDAY.—Daniel Cordoran, eight years of age, was killed in the face by a horse at the corner of Thirty-seventh street and Eleventh avenue. He was taken to Mount Sinai Hospital, and thence home. A child, three weeks old, died suddenly at No. 640 Ninth street, Honora Connolly, an old woman, residing at No. 31 Franklin street, was run over by a car on the corner of Fulton and Fulton streets. She was removed to Bellevue Hospital. William Edgerton, porter at No. 43 Murray street, was taken suddenly ill and died at the City Hospital. George Connolly, residing at No. 41 Madison street, fell down the hatchway of one of the Black Ball line of packets and was seriously injured. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital. Last night Margaret Ellison, residing at 22 Clinton street, was found sick on the corner of Tenth avenue and Eleventh street, and taken to Bellevue Hospital. A man (unknown) was found in Hell Gate yesterday, aged thirty-five, about five feet nine inches high. He was dressed in dark suit, and was seriously injured. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

Slow Footed Justice.—Jacob Levi was yesterday arrested by Judge Mansfield, of the Essex Market Police Court, on a charge of stealing clothing to the value of $110 about eighteen months ago, the property of Myer Whitehead, No. 48 of Murray street. The accused was fully committed to answer.

CARRYING CONCEALED KNUCKLES.—On Tuesday night a man named Oscar Bass was arrested by Officer McAuliffe, of the Sixth Precinct, on the charge of having secreted in his coat pocket a pair of iron knuckles in violation of law and with the alleged intent to use the same. Judge Hogan held Bass to await his trial in default of bail.

MEETING OF RETAIL NEWS AGENTS.

A meeting of the Retail News Dealers' Protective Union was held last evening at 76 Prince street. Mr. H. C. Murphy presided. The CHAIRMAN, in stating the objects of the association, observed that it was mainly instituted to resist the attempts of wholesale dealers to raise the prices of papers while the publishers themselves had made no increase. He was glad, however, that the combination of retail agents had partially succeeded in defeating the intention of the monopolists, as they had lowered the rates of the old prices and had also lowered the rates of business on Sunday. Notwithstanding this, it was considered highly desirable to form a copartnership union of their own, and in fact to do a business of their own. The meeting was held in the evening, and the meeting was held in the evening, and the meeting was held in the evening.

JEFFERSON MARKET BREVIETTES.—James Goodall and Charles Hildreth were committed to the Special Sessions on the charge of stealing from George Haddock, of No. 13 Horatio street. Minnie Morris was committed on the complaint of John J. Townsend, who charges her with stealing household articles from his residence at 131 Broadway. A boy named John McMillan was charged by Rosa Denzil, of 49 Canal street, with theft tapping and carrying away $4.25 from the cash register in his possession, and admitting the charge he was sent down for trial.

ROBBERY OF A JEWELLER.—On Saturday evening last Michael Kerrigan, residing on Thirty-seventh street, entered the jewelry establishment of Jervis Evans, on Sixth avenue, for the purpose of selling some old silver. Mr. Evans had occasion to go out for change and left Kerrigan in the shop alone during his absence. On Monday he discovered that three gold and two silver watches had been stolen, and he immediately reported the matter to the police. The property stolen is worth about $800. Kerrigan bears a good reputation for honesty and sobriety, and it is probable he is innocent.

BURGLARY IN TWENTY-FIFTH STREET.—On the night of the 24th inst., the unoccupied dwelling house of Mr. Ulysses D. French, at East Twenty-fifth street, was broken into by a burglar, who entered by a back door and stole various articles, including a velvet coat, velvet dress, and other articles, valued in all at $500, with which the burglar escaped. Search was made for the thieves, and subsequently Detective Farley, of the Central office, arrested James Lane, living at 153 Monroe street, and in his house found a trunk containing most of the property stolen from Mr. French. It was the trunk of the burglar, and he was taken to the police station, where he was held for further examination.

DISCHARGE OF AN ALLEGED MURDERER.

It will be remembered that the HERALD has already announced the arrest on last Sunday week of an Irishman named Maloney, who was taken off the steamship City of Antwerp on her arrival here.

The arrest was made by detectives Eustace and Irving, of the Central office. At the time Maloney was arrested, he was charged with the murder of a woman named Mary, who was taken off the steamship City of Antwerp on her arrival here.

Maloney was held in custody for several days, but he was subsequently released, and he was taken to the police station, where he was held for further examination.

THE CORCORAN LEGION EXCURSION.

The excursion promised by the Committee of the Corcoran Legion Monument Association took place yesterday at Jones' Wood. It was expected by the friends of the movement lately set on foot for the purpose of erecting a fitting monument to the memory of the heroic Irish soldiers who fell in defence of the republic in the late war that yesterday's demonstration would be worthy of the occasion and the cause. Unfortunately it was not so. It was evident from the first that some one had blundered in the management of the affair. Thousands who desired to prove by their presence their appreciation of Irish valor and patriotism were disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

The number of people present at Jones' Wood yesterday did not exceed two thousand, while every one interested in the cause of the Corcoran Legion would have been glad to see twenty thousand people at the very least. Several distinguished people of whom the Irish are very proud, were present, and they were very much disappointed by the small number of those who actually attended.

Dawson's injuries. Friday is a German, fifty-six years of age. Dawson is a native of Ireland, about thirty-five years of age.

INCOMPETENT PUPP CLEMS.

BROOKLYN, July 27, 1896.

To the EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—I noticed in your issue of a day or two since an account of poisoning, caused by the employment of an incompetent person as clerk. The practice of giving such persons employment on account of the low salary they will work for is assuming the shape of a criminal practice, and should, by legislative enactment, be remedied. A stringent law should be passed requiring drugists to employ competent persons only. The law is before their eyes; if they fail to come up to its requirements let them suffer the extreme penalty which should be heavy. If, however, upon examination the clerk was found to be competent, let him suffer for his criminal carelessness, exonerating his employer. Such a law would compel scrupulous care, and partially, if not wholly, remedy the growing evil.

WESTCHESTER INTELLIGENCE.

BERKMAN AVENUE, FORDHAM.—The Commissioners having charge of the opening and grading of Berkman avenue, from Fordham to Williamsbridge, held a meeting last evening for the purpose of deciding upon the grade.

CENTRAL AVENUE.—The Upper Central Avenue Commissioners have decided to receive proposals for opening and grading a section of three miles, from White Plains southward, until the 21st day of August, when the bids will be opened and the contract let.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB IN SING SING.—The Democratic Club of the town of Ossining has secured rooms in Talbot's Building, Sing Sing, for their accommodation during the Presidential campaign. The officers of the present organization are as follows: President, M. L. Cobb, Smith; Vice-President, A. C. Lawrence; Secretary, J. H. Wheeler; Recording Secretary, J. H. Wheeler; Treasurer, J. H. Wheeler.

POLITICAL MOVEMENTS IN EASTCHESTER.—The Democrats of Eastchester assembled at Washington Hall, Mount Vernon, on Tuesday evening and organized a campaign club with the following named gentlemen as officers:—Capt. E. D. Lawrence, President; E. L. Lawrence, Vice-President; J. H. Wheeler, Secretary; J. H. Wheeler, Recording Secretary; J. H. Wheeler, Treasurer.

CAMPION CLUBS IN WEST FARMS.—The Democrats of West Farms have organized a Central Campaign Club for the Presidential contest, with Captain Frederick Grote as president and R. D. Hamilton as secretary. The club has made arrangements to hold a meeting next week to rally the nominations of the various clubs.

NEW JERSEY.

Jersey City.

A POLICEMAN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—Yesterday morning police officer Martin V. Rose was patrolling Newark avenue and on swinging his club struck the revolver in his pocket, causing one of the charges to go off. The contents entered his hand, traversing the palm and lacerating it. The injuries, though painful, are not serious.

Hoboken.

A SWITCHMAN SEVERELY INJURED.—About half-past three o'clock yesterday afternoon switchman Deegan, who was posted at one of the crossings of the Morris and Essex Railroad in Hoboken, was turned on by a train, and was severely injured. He was hurled one side of the track. He received a severe contusion on the head and for a time was unconscious. He was taken to his residence at the corner of Willow and Sixth streets.

Newark.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Daniel Brown, while returning from work on Monday evening, was set upon by two ruffians, who mightily beat him. They also robbed him of $10.00 in money and a watch valued at $40. The parties were not arrested.

FIRE.—At an early hour yesterday morning Riley & Co.'s varnish shop caught fire from an overheated oven and was totally destroyed. Loss on building, $800; no insurance. On the contents of the shop there is an insurance of $700, covering the loss. A. J. Riley, the proprietor, is now looking for a new place.

THE CITY AND COUNTY TAX.—The Essex county Board of Assessors have appointed the county tax among the cities and townships as follows:—

Newark	$414,334	Livingston	$4,047
Elizabeth	2,200	Montclair	1,000
Orange	20,000	South Orange	9,000
Orange-2d ward	9,000	East Orange	10,738
Bloomfield	15,198	West Orange	12,448
Chichesterville	17,488	Montclair	10,000
Clinton	18,700	Total	$205,753

This is a large increase both of taxation and per centage over last year.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

Mutual of New York vs. Olympic of Philadelphia.

The third game of the Olympics, of Philadelphia, in this neighborhood came off yesterday at the Union grounds, the Mutuals being their opponents on this occasion and coming out ahead with a score of 29 to 5. The game, as the score will show, was very prettily played, and the Philadelphia have but little reason to feel ashamed of the result, but as it may appear. To be sure there was some wild play on the part of the Mutuals, but generally speaking, the play was very good. Stockman, the Mutuals' star, played third base in a style such as it has not been played before, and Jewett did wonderful execution, and was very good. The Mutuals' play was very good, and the Philadelphia's play was very good.

OLYMPIC.

Mutual of New York vs. Olympic of Philadelphia.

The third game of the Olympics, of Philadelphia, in this neighborhood came off yesterday at the Union grounds, the Mutuals being their opponents on this occasion and coming out ahead with a score of 29 to 5. The game, as the score will show, was very prettily played, and the Philadelphia have but little reason to feel ashamed of the result, but as it may appear. To be sure there was some wild play on the part of the Mutuals, but generally speaking, the play was very good. Stockman, the Mutuals' star, played third base in a style such as it has not been played before, and Jewett did wonderful execution, and was very good. The Mutuals' play was very good, and the Philadelphia's play was very good.

OLYMPIC.

Mutual of New York vs. Olympic of Philadelphia.

The third game of the Olympics, of Philadelphia, in this neighborhood came off yesterday at the Union grounds, the Mutuals being their opponents on this occasion and coming out ahead with a score of 29 to 5. The game, as the score will show, was very prettily played, and the Philadelphia have but little reason to feel ashamed of the result, but as it may appear. To be sure there was some wild play on the part of the Mutuals, but generally speaking, the play was very good. Stockman, the Mutuals' star, played third base in a style such as it has not been played before, and Jewett did wonderful execution, and was very good. The Mutuals' play was very good, and the Philadelphia's play was very good.

OLYMPIC.

Mutual of New York vs. Olympic of Philadelphia.

The third game of the Olympics, of Philadelphia, in this neighborhood came off yesterday at the Union grounds, the Mutuals being their opponents on this occasion and coming out ahead with a score of 29 to 5. The game, as the score will show, was very prettily played, and the Philadelphia have but little reason to feel ashamed of the result, but as it may appear. To be sure there was some wild play on the part of the Mutuals, but generally speaking, the play was very good. Stockman, the Mutuals' star, played third base in a style such as it has not been played before, and Jewett did wonderful execution, and was very good. The Mutuals' play was very good, and the Philadelphia's play was very good.

OLYMPIC.

Mutual of New York vs. Olympic of Philadelphia.

The third game of the Olympics, of Philadelphia, in this neighborhood came off yesterday at the Union grounds, the Mutuals being their opponents on this occasion and coming out ahead with a score of 29 to 5. The game, as the score will show, was very prettily played, and the Philadelphia have but little reason to feel ashamed of the result, but as it may appear. To be sure there was some wild play on the part of the Mutuals, but generally speaking, the play was very good. Stockman, the Mutuals' star, played third base in a style such as it has not been played before, and Jewett did wonderful execution, and was very good. The Mutuals' play was very good, and the Philadelphia's play was very good.

OLYMPIC.

Mutual of New York vs. Olympic of Philadelphia.

The third game of the Olympics, of Philadelphia, in this neighborhood came off yesterday at the Union grounds, the Mutuals being their opponents on this occasion and coming out ahead with a score of 29 to 5. The game, as the score will show, was very prettily played, and the Philadelphia have but little reason to feel ashamed of the result, but as it may appear. To be sure there was some wild play on the part of the Mutuals, but generally speaking, the play was very good. Stockman, the Mutuals' star, played third base in a style such as it has not been played before, and Jewett did wonderful execution, and was very good. The Mutuals' play was very good, and the Philadelphia's play was very good.

OLYMPIC.

Mutual of New York vs. Olympic of Philadelphia.

The third game of the Olympics, of Philadelphia, in this neighborhood came off yesterday at the Union grounds, the Mutuals being their opponents on this occasion and coming out ahead with a score of 29 to 5. The game, as the score will show, was very prettily played, and the Philadelphia have but little reason to feel ashamed of the result, but as it may appear. To be sure there was some wild play on the part of the Mutuals, but generally speaking, the play was very good. Stockman, the Mutuals' star, played third base in a style such as it has not been played before, and Jewett did wonderful execution, and was very good. The Mutuals' play was very good, and the Philadelphia's play was very good.

OLYMPIC.

Mutual of New York vs. Olympic of Philadelphia.

The third game of the Olympics, of Philadelphia, in this neighborhood came off yesterday at the Union grounds, the Mutuals being their opponents on this occasion and coming out ahead with a score of 29 to 5. The game, as the score will show, was very prettily played, and the Philadelphia have but little reason to feel ashamed of the result, but as it may appear. To be sure there was some wild play on the part of the Mutuals, but generally speaking, the play was very good. Stockman, the Mutuals' star, played third base in a style such as it has not been played before, and Jewett did wonderful execution, and was very good. The Mutuals' play was very good, and the Philadelphia's play was very good.

OLYMPIC.

Mutual of New York vs. Olympic of Philadelphia.